water until they were rescued by passersby.

The lightning sheet circulated the fire alarm system numerous times, causing alarms to ring and thereby adding to the trials of the firemen.

At times apparatus was stalled in takes caused by the rain, and on one occasion the car of Chief Charles L. McCarthy was bogged down in Shrewsbury street.

Business houses in the lower part of the downtown district were the heaviest sufferers from the floods, as the waters poured into the basements where in many cases perishable stock was stored.

At Park ave., the "automobile row" of the city, a number of cars stored in basements were damaged. It was estimated that the damage would be in excess of $100,000.

All ambulances were kept busy during the storm with many calls going into Worcester police and quarters, but as far as could be learned no one was seriously injured.

It was feared that most damage was caused to "empty" rooms stored in the vault of granite cut when water poured down the main stairs of the Superior Court building.

FIRE AFTER FIRE

Five after five, the fire alarms following each other in rapid succession, but because of the terrible downpour, little damage was caused.

One and a half inches of water fell in 40 minutes, overstrained casks being unable to hold more of the flood, which backed up into the streets.

Three children were playing in Vernon sq., when the storm descended, and before they could reach the street, the smallest was swept off her feet by the torrent and under the wheels of an automobile.

A passing pedestrian rescued and carried the child to safety, while her companions fled screaming.

The second child, an Englishman, aged 10, was swept off his feet by the rushing torrent.

PATROLMAN IN GUN BATTLE; 2 ARRESTS

Roxbury Officer Seizes Man in Duel; Youth Caught in Palmer

Fleeing to New York in a stolen sedan, John F. Burke, 19, wanted for two gun duels with police yesterday and last night, was captured at pumpjack in Palmer today after the sedan went over an embankment.

The youth, who told police he had no home, was making his escape from the wreck when Patrolman James P. Fitzgerald of Palmer captured him on the Boston-Springfield State road.

He was turned over to Sgt. Edward Ryan and Patrolman James P. Fitzgerald of Palmer, who were detailed to bring him back to Palmer.

He was taken to Boston police headquarters, charged with larceny of the auto. Police said further charges involving the shooting and possibly killings may be brought after he is viewed by a physician.

Lioret, Harry Avery and Trooper Charles T. Sullivan of the Framingham State police barracks, came to Boston headquarters to question the youth for his alleged part in the Framingham affair.

His description had been flashed through the State after he shot out with Framingham State police yesterday morning and again last night with Patrolman James P. Fitzgerald of the Roxbury Crossing station.

Falvey arrested Michael Moore, 35, of Athol, at South End, and John Burke, after a running gun fight through Center st., Roxbury, from Elliot st. to Jackson st., ended when the auto crashed into a house.

Moore staggered out of the car, while Burke and another companion, police say, escaped.

Shortly after, the sedan of Harry Croft of 134 Blue Hill ave., Roxbury, was stolen from in front of his home. It was chased by a patrolman, police say, who was followed by Burke's previous boss, who "no cop would get him alive" found him without his gun when he was captured.

Lost and Found List

Include Set of Store Molars

To the lost and found department at the Newton police headquarters has been added one lower plate of false teeth.

The artificial molars were picked up on Walworth st., near River st., West Newton, by O. P. Keefe of 10 Mt. Auburn st., Waverland. Keefe turned the plate over to the police, who are holding it for the owner.

RECALLS WIFE'S NAME

King told the investigators that the last time he saw his third wife, Edna Hill, was a week or two ago about a month before the body was found. At first, Detective Brown said, he could not recall the name of his third wife, but under repeated questioning was able to say:

He said his other wives were Hannah Levitt of Charlestown, N. H., and Marie Suter of Waverland.

Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Walbridge, King and Smith were arrested in the shooting when he was taken to the hospital, and then vanished, taking to his heels alone, while the rest of both gangs—five of them wounded—also dispersed.

Veis Deny Connection With Reverse Shooting

Commander William C. Gibson of Roxbury Post, Veterans Foreign Affairs, today issued a statement calling attention to the fact that his organization had no connection with yesterday's gang shooting at its clubhouse.

As explained in the Boston Evening American report of the affair, the shooting took place in two rooms of the clubhouse, which is located at the corner of Washington and State streets. The Veterans of Foreign Wars meet in the building. The organization is controlled by the Veterans Association, an organization separate from the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Although the location of the shooting and the connection the cases had with the two rooms were correctly reported in the Boston Evening American, it is stated in the statement that the Veterans of Foreign Wars are not the members of his past were not involved.

THE LOVE AFFAIRS OF Robert A. "Romeo" King

Conference Will Discuss Way to Finance Needs of Stricken Farmers

Washington, Aug. 16 (AP)—A conference between President Hoover and bankers from the drought-ridden States stood today as the next national move in the drought relief campaign.

Beneficial rains meanwhile alleviated conditions in several of the sun-parched areas.

As soon as State relief committees—agreed on at the White House conference of governors—have been set up, President Hoover expects to call in their banking members for a discussion of the financial means to be employed in the campaign to prevent human suffering and disease and to tide over the winter months and their livestock.

The program adopted received the unqualified approval yesterday of the heads of three important organizations, the National Grange, the Farmers' Union and the American Farm Bureau Federation.

The heads of the three groups told Hoover that they would plan the best available and pledged their wholehearted co-operation.

HELEN WILLS SAYS HINT OF LOSING AMATEUR STATUS 'ABSDURD'

WILL ACCEPT $20,000 LEGACY

Tennis Authorities Back Her in Attitude on Bequest by Phelan

San Francisco, Aug. 16 (AP)—Helen Wills Moody today branded as "perfectly absurd" the suggestion she would jeopardize her amateur tennis standing by accepting a $20,000 legacy bequeathed by the late James D. Phelan, former U. S. senator.

The legacy was one of numerous bequests in his will, filed yesterday, disposing of an estate estimated at $100,000.

Immediately the question arose whether Mrs. Moody, women's national champion, would endanger her amateur status by accepting the gift, which the will said was in appreciation of her winning of the tennis championship of California.

"It couldn't possibly have anything to do with my amateur standing, and I think the suggestion is in extremely bad taste," said Mrs. Moody.

"I am very sorry that any such controversy should arise. There should be nothing said about it whatever. I do not wish it, and I am sure Senator Phelan would not have liked it."

The question was said to be without precedent in tennis, with the case of Bobby Jones, a possible parallel in amateur sports. Jones some time ago refused to accept a palatial home tendered him by Georgia admirers.

The exact wording in the Phelan will is:

"To Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, in appreciation of her winning the tennis championship of California, $20,000 and Nigella's portrait of herself."

The definition of an amateur, as outlined in the rules of the International Tennis Federation, of which the U. S. L. T. A. is a member, follows:

"Any person who does not receive, or has not received, directly or indirectly, pecuniary advantage by playing, teaching, coaching or pursuing of the game."

WILL BE REFUSED. President Louis B. Dalley, president of the U. S. L. T. A., said the question probably would be referred to the amateur rule committee.

"It is a matter," President Dalley remarked but he refused to express an opinion.

A prominent member of the rule committee headed by Holcombe Ward of New York, indicated that to compel Mrs. Moody to refuse the legacy would be "going too far."

Roscoe Maples, president of the California Tennis Association, said he was unable to say how the gift to Mrs. Moody "could possibly affect her amateur status."

W. J. WELCOMES SIR THOMAS. New York, Aug. 16 (AP)—Sir Thomas Lipton came to America today for his fifth attempt to win the America's cup, announcing that if he failed this time he would "try again" as soon as possible.

In high good humor, the 81-year-old merchant and yachtman, was taken from the Leviathan at Quana on the city tug Macdon and brought up the bay with all the fanfare of a hero's welcome. It was Sir Thomas' 52nd visit to the United States, but the first time he had been given an official welcome.

As he passed it when he was greeted by former U. S. champion Grover Whalen, head of the America's cup committee.

"This is the first time I have been taken off a ship by the police," Sir Thomas said.

He expressed the opinion that in the Shamrock V he had a yacht capable of winning the emblem of international yachting supremacy. Recalling that the cup had been in this country for 75 years, he said he was about time that it went back to its native land.

Sir Thomas asked who would be his rival skipper in the forthcoming race starting Sept. 12. He was especially eager to find out whether it would be Charles Francis Adams, Secretary of the Navy, who as his last opponent sailed the Resolute to victory over the Shamrock V in 1920.

After receiving the welcome of a crowd of several hundred at the hotel where he is staying, Sir Thomas left for his mid-week hotel where he will rest for several days before going to Newport, R. I., scene of the racing course.

WHAT HE TOLD CUNLEY. Mayor James M. Curley, Boston, also went down the bay on the Macdon to meet Sir Thomas, returning from abroad on the Leviathan, and they all returned to the Battery on the city tug.

Another Letter From Ollie to His Pal Win Brooks

HONG KONG, AUG. 15. DEAR OLD PAL WIN—Well, you will probably be surprised to see I have left Bermuda but I will tell you how that happened and see if you can blame me.

I buy a option on a rundown milk route on the road to St. Georges and it looks like all it needs is a little building up by the right man. I get me a wagon, a milk route a horse but a fast coming but I do not have no cow yet.

Well, Win, there is a advt. in the Hamilton paper from a man at St. Georges with a cow so I go over and he is a big man with a black mustache that makes me think of the old days I didn't go to do St. back in Boston just to do a job, and I said to him, you have a cow. He said I have a cow, yes, what do you want him for and I said I am building up a milk route what you need is not a cow but a soldier or white paint. Of course I came right, and he headed the mustache was too much.

No, he is not I reminds me of the old days down in Chinatown where I used to hang around I start reaching for a saw.

The show here is a drawback, what with rice and dried up ribs and fish served to bake in the sun a long time and also there is plates on the river. By the way, how is the old gang getting along?

When my stomach gets acquainted I guess I will like it here a night because there is a lot of places looking like they are.

The arrival ended a journey of 228 miles almost without deviation along the Great Circle route. The dirigible left St. Hubert airport, Montreal, at 10 p. m. (E. D. T.) Wednesday and made the trip to Cardington in 84 hours and 12 minutes.

This is 48 minutes more than the record crossing of the Graf Zeppelin from Lakehurst to Friedrichshafen in August, 1929.

Mayor Curley is expected to return from New York on the midnight train tonight to deliver a radio address and to preside over the opening of the national convention of the Knights of Columbus.

"BOSSY" GILLIS BACKS WAR ON JUDGE

Declares Judge Who Fined Salisbury Police Chief Should Be Ousted From Bench

Newburyport, Aug. 16.—Endorsing the stand of Salisbury selectmen in the case of Chief of Police Cole, Mayor Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis today declared Judge Nathaniel N. Jones of the local district court "should be thrown off the bench."

Mayor Gillis, just returned from a campaign tour, as candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate, also charged that Judge Jones does not attend to his duties and is biased.

"Judge Jones is supposed to be in court every morning at 8 o'clock," said the mayor, "but it is a frequent occurrence to have court kept waiting until 10:30 until he appears."

"Chief Cole of Salisbury was absolutely blameless and yet Judge Jones fined him $10 for contempt of court, charging he was late in returning a complaint."

In the next sentence, "Bossy" explained the origin of his feud with Judge Jones.

"Judge Jones sent me to jail for 11 months and fined me $100 for cutting down a few trees," Bossy admitted.

"The sentences he hands out are far too stiff, and there has long been complaint against him. I am not the only one who has means who has suffered at the hands of Judge Jones."

The Salisbury police intend to carry out the instructions of the selectmen in the case of Chief of Police Cole, Mayor Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis today declared Judge Nathaniel N. Jones of the local district court "should be thrown off the bench."

Following the firing of Chief Cole by Judge Jones, the Salisbury selectmen voted to demand that in the case of Chief Cole, Mayor Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis today declared Judge Nathaniel N. Jones of the local district court "should be thrown off the bench."

The Democratic leaders, he said, "put their party in direct opposition to every effort made by the nation's Chief Executive and all the administration to reduce business and provide employment for the people. Having selected the national misfortune of the day—the suffering of the unemployed—as a campaign issue for 1930, the Democratic leaders could not lend their support to any corrective measure without exposing their party of a battle cry for the campaign."

Gustave Frohman of the Theater Family Dies. New York, Aug. 16 (AP)—Gustave Frohman, 76, retired theatrical manager and brother of Daniel and the late Charles Frohman, died last night at his home after a month's illness.

It was Gustave Frohman who inspired his brother to enter the theater business after he himself had gone into it at the age of 17. All three rose to great prominence. Charles went down on the Lusitania. Gustave retired 15 years ago. Daniel, the eldest, still conducts his business.

Gustave is credited with originating a "road business" for complete New York companies. Before he ventured into theatrical management only the stars of New York productions were sent on tours to play with local companies.

Muddy City Water Baffles Officials. Lowell, Aug. 16.—Water department officials are baffled over the chronic appearance of muddy water in the city supply. The latest complaint in this respect comes from the city of Hingham, where the water was found to be contaminated with mud last night.

This condition has been complained of in various localities during the past few weeks, and department officials are unable to explain the reasons.

$150,000 Fire Sweeps New Haven Factory. New Haven, Aug. 16 (AP)—A fire today swept the plant of the Howard Company, building supply manufacturers and dealers, here. The damage was placed at $150,000. The fire broke out in the night, and the cause of the blaze was not yet known.

Ensign Underhill to Wed Miss Sweetser

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Sweetser of Lincolnville, Wis., Winchboro, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kohl Sweetser, to Ensign James Underhill, U. S. N., of Torrington, Conn.

Miss Sweetser was graduated in June from the New York School of Fine and Applied Arts. Ensign Underhill graduated from Annapolis in 1928 and is stationed at Pensacola, Fla. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

A prominent member of the rule committee headed by Holcombe Ward of New York, indicated that to compel Mrs. Moody to refuse the legacy would be "going too far."

Roscoe Maples, president of the California Tennis Association, said he was unable to say how the gift to Mrs. Moody "could possibly affect her amateur status."

W. J. WELCOMES SIR THOMAS. New York, Aug. 16 (AP)—Sir Thomas Lipton came to America today for his fifth attempt to win the America's cup, announcing that if he failed this time he would "try again" as soon as possible.

In high good humor, the 81-year-old merchant and yachtman, was taken from the Leviathan at Quana on the city tug Macdon and brought up the bay with all the fanfare of a hero's welcome. It was Sir Thomas' 52nd visit to the United States, but the first time he had been given an official welcome.

As he passed it when he was greeted by former U. S. champion Grover Whalen, head of the America's cup committee.

"This is the first time I have been taken off a ship by the police," Sir Thomas said.

He expressed the opinion that in the Shamrock V he had a yacht capable of winning the emblem of international yachting supremacy. Recalling that the cup had been in this country for 75 years, he said he was about time that it went back to its native land.

Sir Thomas asked who would be his rival skipper in the forthcoming race starting Sept. 12. He was especially eager to find out whether it would be Charles Francis Adams, Secretary of the Navy, who as his last opponent sailed the Resolute to victory over the Shamrock V in 1920.

After receiving the welcome of a crowd of several hundred at the hotel where he is staying, Sir Thomas left for his mid-week hotel where he will rest for several days before going to Newport, R. I., scene of the racing course.

WHAT HE TOLD CUNLEY. Mayor James M. Curley, Boston, also went down the bay on the Macdon to meet Sir Thomas, returning from abroad on the Leviathan, and they all returned to the Battery on the city tug.

FLIER'S DIVORCE PLEA ITS SNAG

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 16 (AP)—Mildred Avery Arnold of Long Beach filed an answer today to divorce action brought recently by Leslie P. Arnold, around the world flier, asking that the petition be dismissed.

She alleged the flier had not been a resident of Arizona the year required by law and a divorce decree obtained by him in Georgia in 1926 and later set aside was still in litigation.

Mrs. Arnold denied the flier's allegation he never lived with her after their marriage in 1917, but left immediately for army service. She also denied that she participated in "wild parties" in New London, Conn., or was guilty of improper conduct.

Arnold recently married Priscilla Dean, in Mexico. But they separated when they learned Mrs. Georgia divorce had been set aside.

Swiss Flier Aug. 17 (Sunday). (AP)—The master of the disabled British steamer Tahiti wireless that at 26 degrees 27 minutes south latitude, 166 degrees five minutes west longitude.

The message said the crippled ship's bulbheads were expected to give way any moment. A Norwegian ship which passed the Tahiti yesterday was expected to be in her assistance, was expected alongside in ten hours.

The position given is about 500 miles southwest of Harzang, Irid and of the Cook group. The Tahiti carried 124 passengers and a crew of 102. Mr. Harold Allen, director of the British Royal College of Medicine, was among the passengers.

Besides the Norwegian vessel, the American steamer Ventura, which left here for Pago Pago, American Samoa, Thursday, and the Tofua, which sailed from here Friday, were proceeding to the scene.

The Tofua carried 60 Filipino laborers who assisted the stokers in firing the ship's boilers to make the best possible speed. It was hoped to increase her normal speed of 10 knots to 14 or 15.

3 Bay State People Injured in Montana. Helena, Mont., Aug. 15 (AP)—Mrs. Grace Perry of Amherst, Mass., and her son-in-law, Leonard Perry, of Amherst, Mass., sustained minor injuries today when their automobile struck a rock and overturned near here. The car caught fire, but the passengers escaped being burned.

WHAT HE TOLD CUNLEY. Mayor James M. Curley, Boston, also went down the bay on the Macdon to meet Sir Thomas, returning from abroad on the Leviathan, and they all returned to the Battery on the city tug.

Tercentenary Pilgrimages
No. 59—HOUSE OF SEVEN GABLES, SALEM

When in Salem, the visitor usually asks to be shown the objects of interest connected with the witchcraft delusion or those associated with the life and writings of Nathaniel Hawthorne.

The House of the Seven Gables is probably the most visited of the numerous places of interest to be found in the historic seaport.

The general belief is that Hawthorne described one particular old house in his story which bears this title. The house which stands at 54 Turner st. was in the family of the Ingalls, relatives of the Hawthornes, who Nathaniel Hawthorne was an habitual visitor when his cousin, Miss Ingervill, resided there.

Miss Ingervill, in showing her cousin about the house once remarked that it had seven gables and took him into the attic to show him the beams and moldings. The house did not have seven gables nor the projecting eaves during Hawthorne's time, but that the romance could not be actually of the house.

COMPOSITE HOUSE
The house in Hawthorne's romance is really a composite of many of the gabled houses standing in Salem during his residence there, but his life is so intimately associated with the Turner st. residence that his cousin that it fairly deserves the present title "House of the Seven Gables."

The "House of the Seven Gables" was built by John Turner in 1682. It was the son and grandson, both by the same name. The third John Turner

Belmont Woman's Club to Start Year October 22

By NANCY BREWSTER
The Belmont Woman's Club year books are out today, the first of the annual publications of the affiliated clubs of the State Federation to make an appearance, announcing the activities of the coming season.

Seven hundred members of the organization will receive the book, prefaced by greetings from the new president, Mrs. Collins Graham, of 223 State st., Belmont.

The club starts the year October 22, with a lecture by Dr. George H. Bigelow, state commissioner of public health, as the feature of the opening meeting. The clubhouse, at 223 State st., Belmont, is the proud possession of the Belmont Woman's Club. Located opposite the Belmont town hall, it stands as a monument to the efforts and energies of the women of Belmont.

A demonstration of healthful dining is also to feature the first club meeting provided over by Mrs. Graham and attended by special guests.

The complete program includes Mrs. Jennie Lollman Barron who on Nov. 5 will give "A Bird's Eye View of a Modern School System"; the presentation of "The Shavi Pageant," Nov. 10; President's Day, Dec. 6, featured by a musical; a success talk by Mrs. Alice Fox-Douglas, Jan. 11; an address by Atty.-Gen. Joseph E. Warner later in January and the presentation of three one-act plays in which the Cambridge Club of Cambridge and the Watertown Woman's Club will share dramatic honors with the Belmont Woman's Club.

A special event scheduled for December 2 at the Copley Plaza ballroom is a Christmas costume ball at which an exhibition drill will be given by the 30th Co., United States Marine reserves.

The program of the club continues through April 22 when Mrs. Hazel Chandler Parks, former president, will give a reading. All the meetings are to be held at the clubhouse.

South Shore Guests
Are Entertained by Hull Club Members

Hull club members are participating in the Tercentenary program along the South Shore, acting either as hostesses to the visitors or as guides to the points of interest in Nantasket, Hull, Pemberton, and Cohasset.

Mrs. Henry F. Mitchell, president of the Hull Club, has met with her executive board during the past weeks, getting ready for the club season, and more particularly the club year book. Efforts are being made to build up a community work, scholarships, and a hospital fund.

Volunteer Workers Aid Young Patients at Island Sanitarium

THE VOLUNTEER WORKERS who will give their time to the children of the Island Sanitarium on Lowell Island, Marblehead Harbor, during the month of August, include Miss Mary K. Anderson of Providence, Miss Anna Bischof of Newton Center, Miss Louise Burton of Auburndale, Miss Lydia Carroll of Benningville, S. C., Miss Rachel Condit of Cambridge, Miss Bertha B. Floyd of Long Island, Miss Mary Garrison of Hartford, Miss Elizabeth Hickey of Arlington, Miss Janet Krogh of West Hartford and Miss Phyllis Laskey of Marblehead.

Other volunteers are: Miss Ethel MacManus of West Hartford, Miss Nancy Metcalf of Cambridge, Mrs. Robert Joplin of West Yarmouth, Miss Polly Plimpton of Hingham, Miss Mabel Rapp of Boston, Miss Virginia Taylor of Brookline and Miss Sally Welch of Boston.

The children of the Island Sanitarium are under the supervision of Miss Virginia Taylor, vice-president, August Hemenway Jr., treasurer, Roger Amory, secretary, and Miss Elsie Wullop, superintendent.

THE church is very definitely concerned over present day conditions, for without the help of parents and the example set by them in the home life, comparatively little can be accomplished by the church in giving religious education to children, Mrs. Sherman will inform State chairman.

Worsted Top-Notcher for Fall Wear

By ANN ARDEN

THE LITTLE woolen dress, an outstanding fashion for fall, is never more chic than when made of worsted. This good-looking woolen, which is smart in chiffon weights as well as slightly heavier weaves with a boucle finish, will delight schoolgirls and their modern mothers alike.

BLACK, BROWN, green, reds and two-tones weaves are all good in worsteds that assure the maximum of service and style, particularly when a touch of pique the neck relieves the fallow severity of the frock. So attractive, in fact, are the worsteds that a half dozen of each of them is almost to be considered an indispensable item of the fashionable fall wardrobe.

A BROWN BAG is carried, and a brown felt hat draped into a small bow, and worn far back.

AN IMPORTANT part of getting the right slant on fall millinery is to know the fashionable shoe. The rule is that the shoe is that angle at which to wear your hat. The rule is that all hats are worn off the forehead—not in the extreme manner affected by some young moderns, but so that there will be considerable forehead visible between your eyes and the edge of your hat.

IT HAS often been said that the truly well-dressed woman spends ten minutes, if need be, to correctly adjust her hat, since the success of her whole appearance depends so much on the way the wears.

ANN ARDEN urges her readers today to view the HEARST METROPHONE NEWS FILM, which has been shown at the STATE THEATRE all this week, in which ANTON PARKER, the fashion expert, presents the accepted fall fashions. Authentic versions of the silhouette, materials, colors and accessories will be shown.

ANN ARDEN answers questions concerning clothes, social customs or fashions generally. Address your questions to the Boston Evening American or to Boston Sunday Advertiser or to Station WHDH.

How Will Germany Fare By Her Next Elections?

"The financial fate of Germany hinges on next month's election," says ex-Chancellor Wilhelm Marx. Anxiety in some circles was created when President Von Hindenburg dissolved the Reichstag July 18. The German people must now elect the deputies to the next Reichstag. The French press perceives the beginning of Fascism. Is Germany facing a dictatorship?

Keep War Going on Fake Stock Sellers

Editor Boston American: Keep up your war against fake stocks! I was talking to a man, who has lived all his life in Boston, and he let out some secrets, how he was taken in.

A man gets so accustomed of himself when he finds out that he has been duped that he wants to forget, if possible, he has lost in these cash games. He does not want to know that he has been humiliated. Many of them have had heads in stocks. These money-mongers chase that hog around churches, parlors of church societies, and intimate with those who have money and then give their stock before them with their honeyed lies. I am one of their victims, I but because I have found out that he is a wolf in sheep's clothing. It has disappeared from these scenes. He is a sucker, more or less, because we have too much confidence in human nature. Your campaign against fake stocks shows your power is fearless and courageous of the rights of the people.
